

Quantum Elastin-Collagen Revival

Key Ingredients that Work

- Peptide Anti-Wrinkle Complex (Matrixyl® 3000) – Synergistic peptides that restore youthful appearance, smooth skin, reduce wrinkles, activate repair processes, and improve tone and elasticity.
- Centella Asiatica Extract + Nano-Centella Extract (Centelastin™) – Promotes healing, boosts collagen synthesis, anti-inflammatory and antioxidant, protects elastin, prevents glycation, provides anti-wrinkle and UV-protective benefits.
- Hypnea Musciformis Algae Extract – Stimulates collagen and fibrillin networks, strengthens tissue, improves elasticity, provides firming and anti-glycation protection.
- Collagen Renewal Complex (Dipalmitoyl Hydroxyproline, Tall Oil Sterol, Linoleic Acid & Sodium Ascorbate) – Increases Collagen III synthesis, thickens and firms skin, repairs collagen support structure, reduces wrinkles, and smooths skin.
- Mannitol – Enhances absorption of actives into the skin.
- Horsetail Extract – Soothing and calming, protects collagen and elastin, improves firmness, tone, and renewal.
- Rosehip Fruit Oil – Antioxidant-rich, reduces fine lines, dark spots, and dryness, supports regeneration with Vitamin A-like activity.
- Hyaluronic Acid – Deep hydration and plumping without oiliness.
- Retinyl Palmitate (Vitamin A) – Antioxidant, skin-lightening, protects against free radicals, enhances rejuvenation.

Product description

A technologically advanced anti-ageing treatment serum that combines powerful peptides, healing botanicals, and hydrating actives to plump, firm, and smooth the skin. By stimulating Collagen III and elastin synthesis, it improves elasticity, reduces wrinkle density and depth, and delivers a rapid lifting and tightening effect. Antioxidant-rich plant extracts and algae protect against free radicals and glycation while enhancing repair. Hyaluronic Acid and Rosehip deeply hydrate, while Vitamin A refines skin tone. The result is firmer, more youthful, and resilient skin with long-lasting radiance.
